

WESTON CLOSE-UP

Jon Guggenheim

HOME: Cleveland's east side.

PROFESSION: President, C-Town Sound

ABOUT HIS BUSINESS: Recording and producing music for local and nationally-recognized artists typically in the jazz, gospel, rock and roll and singer songwriter genres as well as creating and producing music jingles for advertising.

PASSIONS: Chasing Lake Erie Walleye, typically at night. He competes in local Walleye tournaments. Participants in the competition fish for a month and whoever catches the fish that weighs the most wins a $1,000 prize. "Walleye season is from October through December and April and May. This year was amazing. I was on the Lake until December 30."

QUOTE: "You can sleep when you die."

WESTON LEASE: Under 1,000 square feet in Cleveland.

WHY WESTON: "Total love. I've been with them for over 10 years. Their sales agents have become friends of mine. The guys who take care of the building are always on it. I have a business that doesn't require a lot of attention from a landlord. They respect that and my space."
